“ I’m so sorry for the Lancaster Family, especially Bo, and for Her husband and family.
I knew Bo’s family and was very close to all his siblings and parents for years growing up.
So many great memories. My heart hurts for the pain and loss that both families are suffering through. May God give you comfort and peace filled with lovely memories to fill your heart in the future. May God surround you with His healing power and love. I’m so sorry I dint know in time to attend her funeral.
Sincerely,
Junie.

“ I hold a wonderful memory in my heart of Amber Lancaster Brown,as she was known during my time with her.

I was undergoing a very serious surgery in Charlotte NC back in 2007. Unbeknownst to me, Amber made special arrangements with her job and family to be by my side.

Amber was such a caring and giving daughter-in-law to me and my family!

I know she is dancing with the Angels and All who have passed before her!

My thoughts and prayers are with your parents, sisters and family.

“ I have always thought a lot of Amber. Working with her I have come to realize what a kind person she was. When she left Chancery I missed talking with her. When I would go get the checks every month, she would always give me her personal check to pay her garbage bill. I know the road you are walking. We lost our daughter in September. It's a void that can't be filled. Only God can comfort our hearts. I pray that God will give you the comfort & peace to go on.

“ Jacky, Coy, and I loved Amber! God brought her back into our lives and now He took her home. We are still reeling from losing Justin (also age 38). That was not enough time to love them nor for them to be all they were meant to be. We must trust the God who makes no mistakes with our babies. May you find comfort from every word, touch and deed during this time.
