

Annie Marshall

August 12, 1925 - September 21, 2017

Annie Lelia Whatley Marshall, age 92, died Thursday, September 21, 2017 at Magnolia Regional Hospital in Corinth. She was born August 12, 1925, in Memphis, TN to Albert Lemuel Whatley and Lelia Augusta Paker. At a young age, her mother taught her the value of serving others. As a young girl, she worked to help her mother and sisters after her father's death. Living as a child during The Great Depression wasn't easy, she worked at a local sandwich shop in Memphis, TN. Her payment was left over chicken broth and the end pieces of the bread. After school, she would milk cows at the local stockyard for the extra milk. Her mother would divide these goods with all her neighbors.

Her lifespan included several major world events including World War II.

Her value of serving continued after her marriage to Andrew Lee Marshall, Sr. In 1942, she married the love of her life. For 61 years, she served him as a faithful, loving wife. Mrs. Marshall spent over 50 years serving as a pastor's wife. She devoted her life to the work of God. She was no stranger to sacrifice for the good of others.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 A.M. Monday, September 25, 2017, at the Booneville Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Buddy Marshall and Rev. Larry Marshall officiating. Burial will be in the Grissom Cemetery in Alcorn County.

She is survived by her sons, Andrew (Addean) Marshall Jr. of Jumpertown, Paul (Pam) Marshall of Byhalia, John (Julie) of Booneville, Larry (Debbie) of Glen and Mark (Robin) of Corinth; daughters, Shirley (Troy) Moss of Southaven, Mary (Tommy) of Como and Kathryn (Buddy) of Horn Lake, daughter in-law Mary Nell Marshall of Horn Lake; 21 grandchildren, 33 great-grandchildren and 13 great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 61 years, Rev. Andrew Lee Marshall, and her son, Robert Alfred Marshall, Sr.

Pallbearers will be her grandsons.
