“ I worked with this precious lady at the hospital in Booneville. It. Was named Northeast Mississippi Hospital in those days. I was a teenager and she sure was a positive influence on all us young girls. We all loved her. We worked hard but had fun doing it. May God bring comfort and peace to her family during their time of sorrow.

“ I remember going to their house when I was younger. Always loved spending time with her and Uncle Carmon. Then after my dad passed they always came and spent Christmas Eve with our family and ate with us. She was a truly sweet lady. Loved her so much. She will be missed.
