

Billie Faye McClung Watson

March 3, 1940 - February 3, 2019

Billie Faye McClung Watson, 78, passed away Sunday, February 3, 2019, at North Mississippi Medical Center in Tupelo. She was born in Union County on March 3, 1940, to Travis William David McClung and Mary Elizabeth Snyder McClung. She was a member of Wheeler Grove Baptist Church. She was a fan of Gone With the Wind and enjoyed listening to Southern Gospel Music. Billie was a lover of coffee and always cherished time with her great-grandchildren.

A homegoing service will be 2:00 PM on Tuesday, February 5, 2019, at Booneville Funeral Home with Bro. Kara Blackard and Bro. Ray Bennett officiating. Burial will be in Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church Cemetery.

She is survived by her daughter, Helen Watson Bonds and her husband, Jeff Bonds of Corinth; grandchildren, Jennifer Johnson and her husband, Jeremiah, of Booneville, and Heather Dees and her husband, Blake, of Guntown; great-grandchildren, Cort Joseph Johnson, Kegen Craig Essary, Gavin Lee Dees, and Kathryn Rene Dees; and an aunt, Jamie Farley of Myrtle.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Douglas Audry Watson; an infant son, Kerry Douglas Watson; and a daughter, Norma Rene Watson.

Pallbearers will be Jeremiah Johnson, Kegen Essary, Thomas Dodds, Blake Dees, and Jeff Bonds. Honorary pallbearers will be Cort Joseph Johnson and Gavin Lee Dees.

Visitation will be Monday, February 4, 2019, from 5:00 until 8:00 PM at the funeral home.

Condolences may be extended to the family at boonevillefuneralhome.net.

Tribute Wall

TD

“ My favorite memory of Billie, many years ago I was at her home, napping on her couch it was cold and I was curled up in a ball she came by and put a quilt over me, never felt so loved in my life, I'll miss you Billy

---

Thomas Dodds - February 04, 2019 at 01:08 PM