“ I love and miss my momma so much. She was not just my mom she was my Best Friend. When we were together we laughed all the time. She was a great caring person with a heart of gold. She was very talented with her sewing. She made clothes and dolls and sewed furniture she was a great person and she was a great cook. Im so glad she taught me all the things she did. She and daddy had 10 kids together and raised us in a christian home. I thank you mom & Dad for all you did for us. I miss you both so much life is so hard for me with you with me but like you always said after ya'll are gone from this old world I can find you still in my heart. RIP MOM & DAD.
