“ Coming home with Jeanie near about every weekend since I was 13, I called him Daddy pretty much the whole time I knew him. He and Sue were definitely second parents to me and helped me grow up a better person. They likely spent thousands of dollars feeding me through the years! Gene worried about us kids, even when we weren't kids anymore. I feared his disappointment in me when I was bad just like I did with my own parents. He set an example to me of what a hardworking man can accomplish. Gene was decent and honest in ways so many men are lacking. He was loved by so many and I just wish I had a chance to tell him all these things. I hope he knew how much I loved and respected him. You girls and all the family are so much in my heart. I wish I could have said goodbye.

“ I want to take a few minutes to say that my Daddy was one of the greatest of men. He never failed to be there for us, no matter the situation. He loved us unconditionally. He loved his family and friends just as much. Our family is heartbroken, to say the least, with his passing. He worked so hard his whole life and was rewarded many times over by praise from people he helped. He always told us no matter what to always do our best in whatever we did. I want to thank everyone who has took time out of their life and came to see him one last time. Please know that he cared for each of you. He will be greatly missed.
