

James Curtis McCreary

January 17, 1941 - April 28, 2017

James Curtis “Jim” McCreary, 76, passed away Friday, April 28, 2017, at his home in Marietta. He was born on January 17, 1941, to Roy and Floy Crow McCreary in New Site, Miss. He was a member of Little Creek Baptist Church. He owned his own auto repair shop, Jim’s Alternator and Starters, for over 30 years. Jim loved to help people, fishing, and going to High School basketball and Northeast Miss. Community College basketball games. He cherished time with his family and friends.

A private burial was in East Prentiss Baptist Church Cemetery on Friday, April 28, 2017.

He is survived by his wife, Maria Chapa McCreary, whom he married on February 3, 1979; one son, Gregory Banegas (Tammy) of New Site; one daughter, Lisa Caveness (Greg) of Marietta; grandchildren, Jamie Caveness, Mamie Caveness, Bailey Banegas, and Tori Banegas.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and a sister, Inez Moore.

Condolences may be extended to the family at boonevillefuneralhome.net.

Cemetery Details

East Prentiss Cemetery