“ my sweet Aunt Marie. I loved this special lady sooo much. She was my aunt but also my friend. i could talk to her about anything and we had some good long long talks. she never judged and always helped you if she could. i have so many wonderful memories of her. She was one of a kind and was always ready for an adventure. She didn't let any grass grow under her feet! What a wonderful person. I know she'll be missed. She loved her family so much and they all loved her! My sincerest condolences to Cathy, Patsy, Boyd, all the grand and great grand children. I love you all very much!

“ Marie took me under her wing when I was 18. We both worked at the Tiger Den. She had previously worked with my mother at Blue Bell. We had much fun and made many memories there. I went to concerts with her and Margie Waters, and enjoyed lots of late evening talks with her, Yvonne and Ann Bishop.

One of my favorites is watching her dancing up that old ramp inside Tiger Den every evening after playing Mickey Gilley’s “I Overlooked an Orchid.”

I can’t think of that song without without seeing her. I visited her in the nursing home a few times but not often enough. Each time, I carried her a fresh orchid and we listened to our song on my phone.

After I left the Tiger Den, I still went there for lunch everyday. I always had money but Marie never let me pay. And before I would leave, EVERY DAY she would empty her tips on my table to make sure I had gas money for college.

It’s rare that friendships last 38 years but ours did. And she knew I never forgot her.

I love you Mama Re.
