“ One more memory, out of over 20 years. Back in the 1970s, Jimmy and I went to Pigeon Forge with Harold, Mary Sue and the kids. All of us were in his station wagon going down the mountain, traffic was bumper to bumper and the temperature was cold. All of a sudden the ball joints on the station wagon broke and we had to pull over close to the edge. A small S-10 truck, that was behind us, pulled over, and it had a young man and his wife inside. They offered to get us down the mountain. Mary Sue and I rode in the cab with the man, all nice and warm...the man's wife, Harold, Jimmy, and the kids rode in the back bed of the truck. I don't know what they were covered with to keep warm but we finally made it down to the main road.

“ Harold loved Honey Baked Ham...I think he ate almost a whole one in 2 days while down at PickWick Lake...he was always friendly and funny. There was one time he found out I did not like the color green. He actually painted the shudders on our trailer Green! LOL!

“ Harold Jones loved life. I got the pleasure of going on one of the vacations to Panama City . He was one of a kind. I have known him for 35 years and he was always Harold Jones. He loved pulling a prank on someone too. RIP Harold Jones
