“ So sorry to here of your mom’s death. She was a sweet woman. Always enjoyed seeing her and visiting when we ran into each other. I so appreciate the way she loved my son throughout so many years. She never failed to ask about him. It was funny that both our names was Sandra Kay. Thinking and praying for you all during this difficult time.

“ Sandra was my “neighbor” in Magnolia Hospital and Landmark Nursing And Rehab Home. We were there 5 or 6 months. We had Rehab at the same time. Sandra was one of the nicest ladies I have ever met. So patient and goal-oriented about her recovery. We had both had orthopedic surgery on the same day. There was plenty of pain and she handled all of it with a great attitude. I’m so glad God allowed us to meet. She did a spectacular job rearing Christi and Kayla. She loved her grandkids. She’ll be sorely missed.
