

Shirley Ramer

November 12, 1940 - March 30, 2020

Shirley W. "Honey" Ramer, 79, passed away Monday, March 30, 2020, at her residence in Booneville. She was born on November 12, 1940, in Prentiss County to Willard Wesley Carter and Frankie Pearle Tennison Carter. She was a seamstress and owned several fabric shops throughout her life. She enjoyed sewing, flower gardening, and being with her kids and grandkids. There will be a private family service with Bro. Jesse Hisaw delivering the message. Burial will be in Fairview Church of God Cemetery. Booneville Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

She is survived by her son, Michael McAnally (Deena) of Booneville; daughter, Sharon Cain of Booneville; a brother, Aaron Carter (Carolyn) of Burton Community; grandson, Matthew Cain (Jessica); granddaughters, Amber Davis (Chris), Alexis Bullard (Devin), and Marley McAnally, all of Booneville; great-grandchildren, Carter Cain, Lily Cain, Noah Cain, Presleigh Davis, Emma Davis, and Wyatt Davis.

She preceded in death by her husband, Curtis Ramer; parents; an infant brother, Harold Carter; and two sisters, Jimmie Lynn Hopkins and Lenovia Miles.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Fairview Church of God Building Fund.

Condolences may be extended to the family at boonevillefuneralhome.net.

“ Sorry for the loss of Shirley. She was a friend of mine back in East Prentiss School days. I remember that she could sing. Lenova, Wynoka , Aaron, and Jimmie Lynn were all my friends.
