

Sue Caldwell

August 19, 1932 - September 10, 2023

Rada Sue Caldwell passed away Sunday, September 10, 2023, in Tupelo at the North Mississippi Medical Center. She was born in Marietta, MS, on August 19, 1932, to Robert Lee Gann and Mollie Annie Grissom Gann. She was the next to the last child of twelve. She was preceded in death by her parents and siblings. She married Winfred "Wimp" Caldwell on May 9, 1951. They were married for 52 years until his death in 2003.

She worked at Northeast Mississippi Community College for 20 years as the secretary to the Dental Hygiene Department, a job she truly enjoyed. She loved keeping her age a secret and had a lot of laughs about that. Sue enjoyed working in her yard, burning rubbish, and walking in the woods. She loved hummingbirds, flowers, and butterflies.

Per her request, a private service and burial will be provided for the family by Booneville Funeral Home. She will be laid to rest in Prentiss Memorial Gardens.

She is survived by her son, Geary Caldwell (Joyce) and daughter, Melanie Justice. A granddaughter, Penny Holley (Scott), and 3 great-grandsons, Adam, Jacob, and Karson Holley who were the apples of her eye. She's also survived by 2 step-granddaughters, Seresa Houston (Jay) and Sherra Richardson and their families. She loved her family and always said they were her greatest joys.

Pallbearers will be Adam Holley, Karson Holley, Scott Holley, Jacob Holley, and Geary Caldwell.

“ Penny, I’m so sorry to learn of Sue’s death. Marcella Stell told me about it at Bible Study. Of course, it was too late for me to attend the funeral or visitation. I always remember how much she loved you. She was always so kind to everyone. Please extend my sympathy to all of her family.
