“ Vickie and I were trusted best friends since we were 13 years old. Have so many fun memories in biking, swimming and always supported each other. After graduation our lives went in different directions. Raised our families and years got away from us. Driving to work one morning I thought of Vickie...after many years had passed...then searched her name in Mesa AZ wrote her a letter and she called me...we then reconnected as if we'd never been a part. We both spent our working careers in healthcare environments. After we both retired I flew out to AZ and spent time and it was like we had never been apart...we laughed...once again us old ladies were back to bike riding... Vickie was a caring and loving friend. My heart is heavy in her passing. Praying for her beautiful family. Will always cherish our friendship and our love for each other. She said to me last year when spending time her last year that she was very thankful for having a caring and loving daughter in Ali who takes wonderful care for her and Irv. “ I started following Ali and her Mother Vickie on a Dementia support group when I was a 24/7 caregiver for my husband John with Lewy Body Dementia/Vascular Dementia. It's such a hard journey to go through alone and my only support were the friends I had in the group, that understood this horrible disease. I loved watching Ali's videos with her Mom, she was so encouraging and I soon felt like I'd known them forever. They had actually lived near where I currently live, at one point and Vickie worked at the hospital I attended. I realized she had a love of chocolate and especially Esther Price, which is a fav around here. So, I started sending her boxes of chocolate to hopefully brighten her day a little. Ali was kind enough to send me some videos of her Mom getting the chocolates. It put such a smile on my face to know I could make her happy even if for a short time. I miss seeing her smile and sing every day. Ali you were such a good daughter and the love between you two was so obvious. My prayers are with you daily for comfort and peace. I love you sweetie and I'm always here if you need to talk. God Bless You and your family 🕊️ 🙏 🤍

“ I never had the honor of meeting Vickie in person, but I felt truly connected to her through Ali’s facebook posts. I communicated with Ali over our shared journey of caring for our moms. In the stories and moments that Ali and Vickie shared, I saw so much of my own mom, who I lost last year to Alzheimer’s. Though our paths never crossed in this life, I felt a kinship through the love, strength, and grace they both carried. Vickie’s laugh, love of music (especially Elvis), and smile brightened my days when I was missing my own mom. May Vickie’s memory continue to shine as brightly in the hearts of all who loved her. “ My Mom, Vickie, was the sweetest and most selfless woman. She delighted in spending time with family and friends. She loved to laugh. Sometimes too hard and she might pee a little. Haha Her love for chocolate, vanilla cones and cheeseburgers were almost as big as her love for us kids, her grandkids and pets. She will always live in my heart. ~Ali ❤️
